

Hash #682
28th September 2014
Vallijee
Hares: Jim and Gilbert

Hello Happy Hashers!

Today's run was on the outskirts of Port Louis – to get to the On-On site, we followed hastily made Hash signs – on A4 sheets of paper would you believe?

What has happened to the Hash signs you ask? Well, some have been 'forgotten' behind at previous hashes – it is the responsibility of the Hare to remember to pick them up!

Back to the Hash itself – it was a nice trail, which was not too long, and we ran on beaches as well as in and out of Cassis and Les Salines, where there were sights and sounds galore! Not only did we run through a fancy fair (that must be a first for the Hash), but also through a cemetery, cremation grounds and over black sand! Along the way we got to see 8 shipwrecks – not something you get to see everyday! A few people managed to lose the trail (of course this did not go unpunished!) but all in all, it was a really good run and very enjoyable! Well done Hares!

First-timers this week:

- Joyce Pierrot, from Quatre Bornes
- Two Czech sailors (apologies I didn't manage to catch their names)

Second-Timers this week:

- none

Below is the list of Sinners this week:

- Marjorie, last to pay
- Kees, for having found better things to do on Sundays instead of coming to the Hash for the last few weeks (there ARE no better things to do, he ought to know better!)
- Bernd and Elli, for finding a better place to sail to (there ARE no better places to sail to!)
- Jacqui – we needed someone to represent the Frenchies, who invaded England.. some 948 years ago
- Bernd, Elvira, Tusia and Claudia, who lost the trail towards the end of the run and missed out on the excitement of running through cremation grounds.
- Marie Anne, who was amongst the walkers that missed out on the Beer Stop – they had supposedly been following Alan (anyone with experience would know that it's never a good idea to follow Alan – not only are you likely to short-cut and get lost, but you'll probably get a down-down too!)
- David, Birthday Down-Down
- Alan and Alyson, partners-in-crime – it's been a long time since we've seen clean shoes/laces on the Hash.

Cow-Bell was given to the RA by Marie-Anne. She did not approve of the way he had raised his voice towards his wife, who does such a wonderful job of pouring the beers for the Sinners and Saints and Second-Timers.

Next Hash: Bassin.

Next Next Hash: Halloween Hash – get yourself ready, there'll be prizes for the Best Costume, Scariest Costume, Funniest Costume and many other surprises on the run.

See you next time!
