

Hash #687
7th December 2014
Bois Cheri
Hares: Vikash and Harry

Forenote:

LITTERING AT THE HASH

Rubbish was found lying around after the Circle today and this is deplorable. There is ALWAYS a trash bag at the Hash next to the beer – there is no excuse NOT TO USE IT!

Hello Happy Hashers!

Today's Hash was set in the beautiful area of the Bois Cheri tea estate and what a superb run it was! We were told it was not going to be 'too flat' – that was certainly true – we ran up and down trails that led into and out of the jungle – with not a tea plant in sight!!! As if that was not enough, we got our feet wet over river crossings and muddy as some parts of the track had seen recent rain. We huffed and we puffed but we all had a fantastic time. Perhaps next time a bit more flour could be used? Well done Hares!

First-timers this week:

- Zohra and Joey Sauzier (from Rose Hill)
- Wendy and Pierre Malah (from SA) – sadly couldn't stay for the circle

Second-Timers this week:

- Joey (the first-timer) – he'd apparently been to the last Hash but couldn't stay for the Circle

Punishments and rewards this week:

- Bob, last to pay
- Tusia and Isabelle, for having let 20 Walkers get to the box before them – P.S. in the future smaller numbers for boxes please (e.g 5... or 7...!!)
- Bob, Karuna and Philida, for not reading the Hash Trash and not knowing that the latest trendy gadget for Hashers is a podometer (thanks Mr RA – that's the word I was looking for in the last two Hash Trashes!)
- Alan, for giving the RA directions home after a wining and dining evening together, and leading him straight into a police check-point
- Lara, John N. and Isabelle, our wonderful Sagittarius Hashers –it was a Down-down for the best of the lot – not only are Sagittarians known to be amazing people but are also good-looking and extremely intelligent. What can I say, it was a Down-down well-deserved!! Oh, and Happy Birthday!
- Harry, for insulting the RA and all those living on the West Coast by addressing the Hash directions to those “from the North, Centre or elsewhere” (elsewhere does not feature on any map of Mauritius that I know!)
- Russell, beer spillage
- Mike, our Deutsch stand-in for our Dutch absentee (yes Kees, you have been found guilty of sinning in absentia – I think your sin is your lack of presence... or lack of presents??? I don't even know anymore.. I've obviously had too many Down-downs today.)

The Cow-Bell was awarded to Lara. Tusia found our youngest Hasher a very deserving candidate and gave it to her as a reward! Our fine little Hasher did so well today that not only did she finish ahead of her speedy brother, but almost beat Alan too! What an effort!! She also celebrated her SIXTH birthday yesterday, so a very Happy Birthday to Lara!!!

RED DRESS RUN – Saturday 20th December 2014

Start: Bambous 4pm sharp

Please bring: small presents to hand out to children – this can be items that they can use (e.g pencils, crayons, colouring books), toys or treats – remember that it will be Christmas-time, so these small gifts will symbolise something meaningful for them!

After-party: Manisa Hotel, Flic en Flac

(NB: it was mentioned during the Circle a few weeks ago that there will be changing rooms available, so to clarify: this is only the case if a room at the hotel is rented out for that purpose)

Tickets: Rs 600

RODRIGUES RUN – Easter weekend 2015

For the first weekend of April 2015, we are trying to organize a Rodrigues Hash. If you are interested, contact Jackie Nixon ASAP: jackiemnixon@gmail.com

Next Hash: Red Dress Run at Bambous, Hash Bash at Flic en Flac

See you next time!
